

Valhalla (Room F)

A massive hall filled with plentiful food and drink stretches as far as the eye can see. The building is roofed with golden shields, and the columns and walls are adorned with carvings and paintings of great battles and glorious deeds. Although the people at the tables are eating and drinking heartily, you never notice anyone with an empty cup, and the myriad of mouth-watering dishes always hold plenty of food no matter how many times they are passed around.

Outside, there are two magnificent trees, whose size and beauty are beyond compare. In the field between them are countless people training, wrestling, and sparring. Although many of them are using actual weapons, no one ever seems to be injured and all of the combatants are in good cheer.

There is an infinite supply of wine here.
